An Ovation to Geo. Johnstone.

Then, another period of private life. Then your kindly consideration again called me forward and I was sent to the Constitutional Convention and there we buried the question of negro suffrage as completely as it can be settled. Only one thing he asked, study that suffrage clause and then go and read for yourself the plan I proposed for the same purpose, and you will not find a particle of difference in the

But he deserved no credit for that. The regret of his life was that his contribution to the public service had not been greater.

One matter more and he was done. He had as yet one ungratified am bition. He was passing rapidly over the stage of life and the hairs that were dark when he first entered publie life were whitened now. wanted an opportunity on a higher plane to be able to write his name across the pages of American history in such a manner the the affection of those who know him now would be increased, and he could leave to his people a heritage of which they would be justly proud.

THE CANDIDATES FOR THE LOWER HOUSE were then introduced. There are seven seeking this position, and each has friends in Newberry County. The speeches by these gentlemen were good and strong and dealt with the questions before the people of this State and country demanding solution.

HON, GEORGE JOHNSTONE,

Possessed of Eminent Ability in the Zenith of His Powers, Well Acquainted With The Traditions and Precedents of His Government-He is the Man for the Senate.

representatives are to be selected, it behooves us to select the very best material out of the number who aspire to office.

It goes without saying it, that all are honorable upright men: but some outside of the mere question of cap ability, have claims upon our community at least which cannot, and must not be set aside.

We refer especially to Hon George Johnstone, of Newberry S. C., candi date for U. S. Senator. Possessed of the most eminent ability, in the zenith of his powers, well acquainted with the traditions, precedents and powers of our government, he is as it appear to us, the man for the place. But besides these, there are other considerations which impel us to this view; in the not far distant past, when our husbands, brothers and grandfathers were hauled before the U. S. Courts, who but George Johnstone came to our help, and without free or reward fought our battle for us, and restored to wife and family, our dear ones. These facts we can never forget, and coupled as they are with eminent fitness for the position, they point him out as the proper per son to be thus honored.

While we do not possess, nor desire the elective franchise, we beg our husbands, brothers, and friends to remember these things on the day Gratitude. of the election.

The following letter to Mr. L. Arthur O'Neill, of Charleston, written in answer to a request by him made to Senator Tillman as to Tillman's position in regard to the candidacy of Mr. Von Kolnitz for the State Senate from Charleston, appeared in the News and Courier of Wednesday: Letter written by the Hon. B. R.

Tillman, July 11, 1902: L. Arthur O'Neill, Esq., Charleston, S. C .- My Dear Sir: Your let ter of June 19 has remained unanswered much longer than I intended, but I have been on a dead run. besides being away from home a good deal since it was received, and that must be my excuse.

I went to the department of justice to find out about Von Kolnitz's application and endorsers. I found that he had made application for the position of district attorney shortly after McKinley's first inauguration, but after he was turned down he has withdrawn the papers, so that there was nothing on file. Von Kolnitz andoubtedly stumped for McKinley ander the direction of Hanna's comt is the essence of cheek for him to appear in the guise of a Democrat and ask the people of Charleston to send him to the State Senate, but I am beginning to lose faith in the Democracy of your people. The action of a good many so called Demo crats in the Harris Postoffice matter s sufficient explanation of my hav ng this view. I sincerely trust that those who are on the lookout as real Democrats will see to it that no such treacherous creature as Von Kolnitz has shown himself to be will be pro-

By very hard fighting and a good deal of mancenvering I got a large appropriation for the navy yard, | Gun Club, carrying with it the amabut I certainly would not make an effort again in that direction if your city goes Republican and Von Kol nitz's election would mean that to me.

I write you this privately, but you can take such steps as you see fit discreetly and let the people know how matters are. I would not like to have this letter published, for the reason it would appear to be med dling in your local affairs.

TILLMAN NOT INTERFERING.

le Denies the Story that He Is Aiding Talbert and Jim Tillman

[Special to News and Courier.] Columbia, July 29.—Senator Till nan has felt that he had to come out in the public prints. He has not had anything whatever to say about the present campaign, but was heard from tonight from Trentou:

Trenton, S. C., July 29 - There appeared in the Atlanta Constitution vesterday a telegram from Charleston saying that in the gubernatorial race factional lines were being drawn and that Senator Tillman was using his influence in behalf of Talbert and J. H. Tillman as against Heyward, "whose candidacy," the dispatch said, was not sanctioned by Senator Tillman."

Today your correspondent called on Senator Tillman at his home here in regard to the story in the Consti tution. When he read the article the senator remarked: "It is a piece of newspaper work that is made when no news can be found It is the most absurd thing I ever heard that Heyward should get a sanction to run for governor. Any man is free to enter the race and I have nothing to do with it. It is the big gest piece of foolishness I ever heard

The senator went on to say that the old lines of demarcation of Till man and anti Tillman had been ob literated. Men were supporting him now who used to be antagonized. Continuing he said: "I have gained more friends than I have lost and in PERLYROYAL PILLS this campaign no candidate will be voted for or against by either of the old factions. I am only drawing lines when I see a Republican disguised as a Democrat, who has the impudence to enter the Democratic primary."

Continuing, the senator said he had nothing to say or do with any of the candidates in their respective races. This was positive and final.
